

PROGRAMME
Saturday 11th December 2021

SESSION 1 (9:00-10:30)
9:00—9:15	Arrival
9:15—9:30	Welcome address	ENGLISH
9:30—10:00	Keynote: Paul Schwarzenbacher Approaching the language of children's rights in Europe: The Austrian perspective	ENGLISH
10:00—10:30	Tatiana Tkacukova The role of linguistic research in supporting access to justice	ENGLISH

SESSION 2 (14:00-15:30)
14:00—14:30	Olivia Wankmüller Legal linguistics as an aid to the development of smart contracts	ENGLISH
14:30—15:00	Irina Gvelesiani The etymology of the trust: A legal-linguistic perspective	ENGLISH
15:00—15:30	Vince Liégeois German as a legal language in Belgium: An equivalency-based approach towards the legal-terminological issues concerning the German-speaking community of Belgium	ENGLISH

SESSION 3 (16:00-17:30)
16:00—16:30	Mateusz Zeifert Two approaches to legal categorisation	ENGLISH
16:30—17:00	Daniel Leisser, Barbara Justen, Doha Nasr, Paul Schwarzenbacher & Michael Seiberler "Gegen den Angeklagten wurde daher auf die Todesstrafe als die allein angemessene Sühne seiner Schuld erkannt": Adjectival indeterminacy and the discursive legitimation of capital punishment in National Socialism	ENGLISH
17:00—17:30	Jacqueline Visconti Clarity and concision in Italian court proceedings	ENGLISH

SESSION 4 (18:00-19:00)
18:00—18:30	The Executive Board of the Austrian Association for Legal Linguistics Third reading and presentation of the Vienna Declaration on Research Ethics in Legal Linguistics	ENGLISH
18:30—19:00	Barbara Justen Research ethics in legal linguistics	ENGLISH

Please note: All times given are Central European Time (CET).